

Number: 2011/1

January 5, 2011

Turkish Banking Sector Main Indicators (November 2010)

According to the unconfirmed temporary data * the banks submitted to the database of our Agency, asset size of Turkish Banking Sector was TL 962.295 million as of November 2010. In the last one year period, asset total of the sector increased by TL 158.497 million (by 19.7%). As of November 2010, within asset items, loans showed a balance of TL 498.454 million while securities showed a balance by TL 282.200 million. When compared to end-2009, loans and securities increased by 27% and 7.4%, respectively, on the other hand, NPL (gross) decreased by 6.9%. In November 2010, profit of the sector was TL 20.366 million and profit for the period increased by TL 1.582 million (8.4%) when compared to the last year. Capital adequacy Standard ratio which was 20.4% in November 2009 period realized as 19.3% as of November 2010.

(TL Million)	November 2009	December 2009	November 2010	Change November 2009-November 2010		Change December 2009-Nov. 2010
				Amount	(%)	Amount	(%)
ASSET TOTAL	803.798	834.014	962.295	158.497	19.7	128.281	15.4
LOANS	384.879	392.621	498.454	113.575	29.5	105.833	27.0
NPL (GROSS)	21.862	21.853	20.354	-1.508	-6.9	-1.499	-6.9
SECURITIES	257.203	262.874	282.200	24.997	9.7	19.326	7.4
DEPOSIT	502.182	514.620	587.609	85.427	17.0	72.989	14.2
OWN-FUNDS	108.918	110.887	131.785	22.867	21.0	20.898	18.8
PROFIT/LOSS OF PERIOD	18.784	20.182	20.366	1.582	8.4
CAPITAL ADEQUACY STANDARD RATIO* (%)	20.4	20.6	19.3	-1.1		-1.3

*Note: Change in Capital Adequacy Standard Ratio refers to "point change".

(*) Prepared upon data dated January 4, 2011.